

How well do you know Sedlescombe?

These questions will test your knowledge of Sedlescombe. All the answers refer to places, people or things found between The Brickwall Hotel and the River Bridge

1. Is there a crown here? -----
2. The old baker is on the move.-----
3. Could be of interest to horologists.-----
4. A home for soldiers?-----
5. High houses?-----
6. A river-crossing for cars with old goods for sale.-----
7. A non-conformist type of building.-----
8. A solid structure but accommodating nonetheless.-----
9. New top belies its name.-----
10. A hardwood makes a home.-----
11. 19th century Sedlescombe builder with animal connections we hear is mentioned in stone.-----
12. The house sounds as though it should provide the ingredients of a snack.-----
13. She could supply the ingredients for a nice cuppa or even snuff close to The Green.-----
14. Sedlescombe butcher's abode.-----
15. The river's name seems a misnomer. Why?-----
16. In memory of three sisters but not now in use.-----
17. Once called "The Workbox". What is the name that links it to question No.16?-----
18. Was old-fashioned form of transport selling liquor.-----
19. A nice rest on the Green to remember a knight and a soldier. What are their names?-----
20. People went to this modest house looking for cures.-----

21. Name's changed, but was this the place to collect a tenth of your wealth?-----
22. It made 1980 a tidy year in Sedlescombe.-----
23. This house was once called after a small coin with bird. What's its name now?-----
24. First owner of this house was born near Maidstone and named his home after the place?-----
25. Small stream found on farm.-----
26. Look up for a supermarket link.-----
27. Childish autumn battle of nuts.-----
28. Soil heavyweights.-----
29. French town preceded by container.-----
30. Name the artisan hidden by an open door.-----
31. Brickwall, Old Thatch and Pollards – what one word links these three buildings?-----
32. A past newsagent has floor-covering connections.-----
33. Another old newsagent tells us that Father's OK.-----
34. Posh cordwainer following meat and long bow connections.-----
35. A local business that would be pleased to provide the main material for No.34 above.-----
36. At first, a 1066 link for this poet who was in our midst?-----
37. 10th letter, also sounds like a bird, twice + food provider = two people who have spent years making people happy.
-----
38. Can the old Doctor (and, incidentally, the Chair) be wrong? No! Sounds OK.-----
39. Washing place belonging to superior hotel less its head.-----
40. A fork and a lot of hard work are useful here.-----