

Give us Lord a bit o' sun,
 A bit o' work and a bit o' fun;
 Give us in all the struggle and sputter,
 Our daily bread and a bit o' butter;
 Give us health our keep to make,
 And a bit to spare for others' sake;
 Give us, too, a bit of song
 And a tale and a book to help us along;
 Give us Lord a chance to be
 Our goodly best, brave, wise and free;
 Our goodly best, for ourselves and others,
 'Til all men learn to live as brothers.

SEDLEScombe BAPTISMAL ROLL. The two rolls in the church are in very poor condition, and it is a number of years since any fresh entries were made, though it should be stressed that the official Register has been properly maintained. There is a feeling that the rolls, which are positioned near the font, should be renovated, updated and then regularly maintained with the names of those brought to the font. Before we get on with the job of restoration, a fair amount of time will have to be spent on archiving from the registers, then the old can be made new, and the missing names entered. Is there a young person who would be prepared to do a little research job, and in due course a calligraphist who can do the entering of the records? Please contact Mrs. Debbie Abbot (Sed. 774) if you would like further details.

WHATTLINGTON BAPTISMAL ROLL. Whatlington P.C.C. is more than grateful to Mrs. Yvonne Sax for her kind offer to bring the Whatlington Baptismal Roll up to date. This is a tedious job, but will ^{give} great satisfaction to all when it is completed.

SEDLEScombe CHURCH LIBRARY. There are about fifty books on religious and associated subjects which have kept at the back of the church for two or three years now, and they are available on a free-loan basis to those interested. Borrowers are just asked to enter their names in a book when they use the facility. We have neither a bookcase or proper display facility, and the very cold temperature in the church during the week cannot be good for the books. If somebody has a bookcase they no longer use and which they would be prepared to donate to the church in full assurance that it will be put to good use, please contact Mr. Malcolm Tegr (Sed. 745).
