

SEDLSCOMBE PARISH COUNCIL CODE OF CONDUCT 2012

7 PRINCIPLES OF PUBLIC LIFE

The principles of public life applies to anyone who works as a public office-holder ie a parish councillor and, now, to Parish Clerks and other employees as well.

The Sedlescombe Parish Council Code of Conduct 2012 was based on the 7 principles which have now been amended.

PRINCIPLE	REVISED DESCRIPTION
Selflessness	Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest.
Integrity	Holders of public office must avoid placing themselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence them in their work. They should not act or take decisions in order to gain financial or other material benefits for themselves, their family, or their friends. They must declare and resolve any interests and relationships.
Objectivity	Holders of public office must act and take decisions impartially, fairly and on merit, using the best evidence and without discrimination or bias.
Accountability	Holders of public office are accountable to the public for their decisions and actions and must submit themselves to the scrutiny necessary to ensure this.
Openness	Holders of public office should act and take decisions in an open and transparent manner. Information should not be withheld from the public unless there are clear and lawful reasons for doing so.
Honesty	Holders of public office should be truthful.
Leadership	Holders of public office should exhibit these principles in their own behaviour. They should actively promote and robustly support the principles and be willing to challenge poor behaviour wherever it occurs.
